Welcome to Awarding Care

Awarding Care has been founded by two brothers, Karl and Tommy who wanted to create a caring, responsive, safe and effective service that is both well led, affordable and encourage independence and recovery.

Both Directors have a wealth of personal and professional experience and are passionate of their motto "Your life, Your Care" ensuring that the specific and thoughts of the individual are taken care of.

Whether Awarding Care provide an occasional visit for companionship, household cleaning, daily assistance with practical tasks such as washing, dressing, help at meal times or just a sit in day visit, our packages are carefully customised around your specific needs. Our team members will always be highly trained to support you and your needs. We are registered to provide care to people living with Dementia, People with physical disabilities, Learning disabilities and Mental Health ranging from 18 plus.

Awarding Care offers its services to everyone that may need it, whether private or local authority funded and will always be consistent giving you a person centred and rewarding experience.
